To whom it may concern

This is to certify that Arunachal Pradesh Power Corporation Pvt Ltd (APPCPL) has been successfully managing our power sector transactions for the last one year. APPCPL being the first and only power trading company from NER region has complete understanding of the power scenario of the region. Due to its local presence and 24*7 control room at Guwahati (Assam), Itanagar (Arunachal Pradesh) and Delhi, APPCPL has been able to provide us with prompt service at all times.

APPCPL has managed our portfolio very successfully and has helped the state in optimization of power. Assam Power Distribution Company Limited is completely satisfied with the technical team and commercial aspect of all the transactions. We have experienced that they have an excellent team of professionals.

We appreciate the work of team APPCPL and look forward for a long lasting association with the Company.
